FATTORIA DEL NONNO ARIOLI

1945

The quality of our oil has deep roots.

Research, passion, nature.

Oil has a charm which arises from its direct relationship with the land, with the olive tree clinging to it, fruitful for centuries and with thousands of fruits that garnish its foliage, offered to the sun with exuberance, almost with joy.

Since the beginning – from our initial small mill, up to our modern and current industrial structure - we have always pursued the goodness of the product as our main purpose. In particular the highest level of its intrinsic characteristics as well as the constancy of the quality of its taste, represent our everlasting passion, and not merely commercial reasons.

Today, as in 1945, Arioli is appreciated by consumers who are looking for a full-fledged oil: genuine and tasty as well as delicate and harmonious at the same time.

Taste for ethics.

Vegan Ok - Extra Virgin Olive Oil 100% Italian

From the love for nature and respect for our land, a 100% Italian Extra Virgin is born, signed ARIOLI and VEGAN OK certified, sincere and rich in healthy nourishment, for every use in the kitchen. A natural, genuine and easy help in the kitchen for the preparation of new and delicious dishes. It is packaged in a dark glass bottle to best preserve its organoleptic characteristics.

VEGAN OK, inside and out.

Scrupulous control, attention to production processes and company organization reward us with a great result: an extremely high quality extra virgin olive oil.

The Fattoria del Nonno Arioli products are VEGAN OK certified, the most widespread ethical standard in the world with over 1000 certified realities, because our raw material is cultivated, transformed and conserved in compliance with the requirements of the specification.

Cold extracted.

Vegan Ok - High Oleic Acid Sunflower Oil 100% Italian.

Cold extracted with only mechanical means, without the use of chemical solvents and unfiltered. Naturally rich in polyunsaturated fatty acids and Vitamin E.

Perfect as a raw condiment for vegetables and salads, soups and sauces, as well as for all types of fries.

Light-hearted way.

Oleic acid is known for its beneficial effects on the cardiovascular system: in particular it has antioxidant effects and would seem to be able to maintain normal blood cholesterol levels (in particular the so-called "bad" cholesterol levels) and to reduce blood pressure values.

And with taste.

The oils rich in oleic acid are more resistant to high temperatures and, during cooking, are more stable: they develop a quantity of compounds harmful to human health much lower than that developed by more unstable oils; for this reason, in addition to olive oil, oils rich in oleic acid are the most suitable to be used for healthy and crispy fries.
